DANCO is an Equal Opportunity Employer. We are committed to providing an equal opportunity to all individuals who are seeking employment. The objective of the company's hiring procedures is to select the most qualified individual for the job. You are encouraged to provide the company with complete and accurate information that demonstrates your qualifications to perform the duties of the job for which you are applying.

DANCO does not discriminate against any person in the employment relationship. It is the policy of DANCO to ensure that all applications are considered for employment and that, once employed, employees are treated without regard to race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, handicap or status as disabled or Vietnam-era veteran.

Management and supervisory personnel and their designated representatives have primary responsibility for enforcement of this policy and must ensure that no person capable and qualified to perform required work is discriminated against in hiring, discharge, promotion, pay, or other conditions of employment due to race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, handicap or status as disabled or Vietnam-era veteran., including harassment of any kind. Further, it has been and it will continue to be the policy of DANCO to give consideration to employment of local area residents in communities where DANCO operates as long as competent, qualified persons are available in that area.

If you have concerns or questions regarding this policy or regulations, you should contact our Human Resources Department.

Application for Employment

We consider applicants for all positions without regard to race, color, religion, creed, gender, national origin, age, disability, marital or veteran status, sexual orientation, or any other legally protected status.
